The Raleigh Daily News.

FRIDAY, MAY 31, 1872.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor.

LOCAL MATTERS.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

There is quite a dearth of news in the city at present.

Morgan street, east of Wynne & Co.'s livery stable, needs repairing.

A few bricks laid in front of the store of Messrs. Deopp & Jones would do the sidewalk no harm.

A farmer friend informs us that he will have green corn in market next week.

Our Local is still confined to his bed from severe indisposition. We hope he will be with his readers in a few days.

The soda water fountains are having a good run this weather. This drink is exceedingly fashionable in Raleigh.

The Conservatives of the Fourth Congressional District will meet in this city on the 6th of June.

Cotton in the Raleigh market yesterday was steady at 22½c. The receipts are very light.

Strawberries are getting somewhat more plentiful in our market, and prices have come down to something like reasonable figures.

Our vegetable market is improving, but those families deprived of gardens at home are still paying pretty dear for the pleasure of living.

The hop at the National to-night will be well attended—the occasion will no doubt be one of unalloyed pleasure. We shall be represented.

The colored Bucket Company has been recognized by the City Commissioners as a portion of the Fire Department of the city.

The Board of Public charities of the State, Dr. C. T. Murphy chairman, held a meeting in this city yesterday evening.

The parrot hanging in front of Phil. Thiem's variety store does more avowing than any politician in the State.

Dog owners are now in vogue. Every one owning a dog should let him out at night that he may enjoy himself and fill the programme if possible.

The weather is clear and pleasant just now. The farmers are making good use of the advantages which the weather affords.

The iron front building that is being erected on Fayetteville street, just above Market Square, is beginning to assume a positive appearance. It will be quite an addition to the appearance of the city.

Judge Merrimon leaves here to-morrow morning for Beaufort, at which place he will address the citizens of Carteret on Monday. He will speak in Goldsboro on Wednesday and at Clinton, in Sampson county, on Thursday.

CLASSICAL AND MATHEMATICAL SCHOOL.—Messrs. T. J. and Wm. D. Homer will commence the fall term of their school at Tally Ho, Granville county, on the second Monday in July. See advertisement elsewhere.

MEMORIAL SERVICES AT THE UNION CEMETERY.—The memorial services at the Union Cemetery, in this city, came off yesterday evening, attended by a large concourse of the sympathizers with the Federal dead. The speaker's stand had been handsomely decorated with flags and flowers. The services were opened with prayer by the Rev. G. W. Brodie. An appropriate poem was read by J. W. Holden and an oration delivered by Capt. Albert Maguin. Those who heard the discourse declare it to have been an excellent one and well suited to the occasion. The orator was introduced by Col. I. J. Young. National airs were played by the colored band, of this city, who were in attendance upon the occasion.

A WHOPPER.

A sturgeon, weighing three hundred pounds net, was caught in Pool's slides on the Neuse river on Wednesday and brought to market here yesterday. That sturgeon was a whopper.

A SELF MADE MAN.

The article in the Chimney Corner of a late date upon "W. A. Smith, one of the Self Made Men of our Times," has provoked no little discussion in our city. An honest mechanic, a few days since, after reading the article, laid the paper aside with an expression of incredulity: "Self made, h—ll! He's got more money than any man in town!"

THE DRESS PARADE.

In our notice of the proposed dress parade of babies upon the Capitol Square on Saturday evening, we stated that children over four years of age would be admitted. We meant to have said that they would not be admitted into the procession. The announcement has been received throughout the city most favorably, and we expect the parade well attended.

NEW SALOON.

We understand that Messrs. Miller & Nelson, a new firm, are fitting up an elegant saloon in the basement of the Market House, where they will dispense various spiritual comforts—while fashionable and refreshing portions will always be kept on hand to slake the thirst of the most fastidious as well as all others.

THE CONCERT AT TUCKER HALL.

THIS EVENING.—The concert at Tucker Hall this evening, given by the young ladies of the Raleigh Baptist Female Institute, will doubtless be a most elegant entertainment. The exercises will commence at 8 o'clock. The public are cordially invited to attend. We acknowledge the receipt of a special invitation to be present.

THE CONCERT AND HOP.

Two very important and interesting local events will take place in this city this evening—the concert of the Baptist Female Seminary, and the "Hop" at the National Hotel. There are a great many persons anxious to attend both. It has been suggested that the dancing at the "Hop" will not probably commence before about 10 o'clock, those who may wish to attend the concert can do so early in the evening and will perhaps have ample time to hear the concert, and afterwards go to the "Hop" in time to be present at the commencement of the festivities.

MATCH GAME.

A match game of base ball was played on Wednesday between the first nine of the "Junior" and "Star" Base Ball Clubs of this city, which resulted in victory for the "Junior," which received a new ball and bat from the "Star" Club.

The first nine of the "Junior" consisted of the following members: C. T. Askew, c.; C. M. Harris, p.; Ed. Smith, s. s.; C. T. Lumsden, 1 b.; J. W. Watson, 2 b.; J. B. Upchurch, 3 b.; G. Morgan, 1 f.; H. Pentecost, c. f.; and W. Farris, r. f.

The nine of the "Star" were: H. Overby, c.; L. W.athers, p.; P. S. Howard, s. s.; W. Riggsby, 1 b.; C. Smith, 2 b.; T. Carter, 3 b.; H. Raven, 1 f.; W. Upchurch, c. f.; and W. Levy, r. f. The runs for the "Junior" Club were 67, "Star" 28.

THE LATE CAPT. F. M. WISHART.

"BROOKLYN LIFE."—Our readers will not easily forget that the late Capt. F. M. Wishart was foully murdered a few weeks since by the radical outlaws in Robeson county. This was the sixth or seventh of their brutal assassinations, which have not awakened in Grant, Caldwell or the "truly loil," one tithe of the indignation that they would have exhibited if a colored pet of the party had been kicked for robbing a hen's nest.

We are gratified to learn that that staunch and admirable company, the "Brooklyn Life," through their General Agent for North Carolina, Capt. A. W. Lawrence, have promptly paid the $2,000 insurance which they had written on Capt. Wishart's life, to his bereaved widow and children. This, by the way, is the second case of loss by assassination in this State, which the "Brooklyn Life" has paid. It is equally just and liberal in meeting its extraordinary losses. No company in the country stands or deserves to stand higher in the public estimation.—Sentinel.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATING CONVENTION.

RESCUE FIRE COMPANY.

There will be a meeting of the Rescue Fire Company to-night, at their Hall, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Chief Engineer of the Fire Department. A full attendance is requested.

FROM WILSON.

A correspondent furnishes us with the following: "The young people of Wilson will give an entertainment on the 7th of June for the benefit of a little afflicted girl. It will be both dramatic and musical—the former under the supervision of Mr. Henry Blount, who possesses histrionic talent of a high order, and always 'brings down the house'—the latter under that of Miss E. Ivey Smith, whose powers as a sweet singer are unrivalled in our section."

We bespeak for the parties having the affair in hand complete success—for the charitable cause in which their efforts are enlisted will no doubt be responded to in a liberal manner by the generous and kind-hearted citizens of Wilson."

(The Editor of the News returns thanks for the invocation of "the inspiration" of his presence, and regrets that his duties will not permit him to attend, but requests his correspondent to send a full account of the affair to the NEWS.)

LEASE OF WILMINGTON AND WELDON RAILROAD.

We copy from the Wilmington Journal, of yesterday, the following account of the recent leasing of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad to the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad, for ninety-nine years:

On Friday last, at the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, held in Baltimore, the lease of that Railroad to the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company for ninety-nine years, with the privilege of a perpetual renewal was agreed upon, and the terms of the lease will be formally referred to the Stockholders at a special or at their next general meeting in this city.

The Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company contracts to take entire charge of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, pay the interest of its bonds, and pay the bonds themselves at their maturity, and pay to the stockholders five per cent. upon their stock for the year 1872, six per cent. for the year 1873, and seven per cent. for each and every year thereafter. These rates are to be paid to stockholders free of all taxes and all other incumbrances.

We take it that the Stockholders of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company will be well pleased with this lease as a financial operation, and the stock may be expected to go rapidly up in price.

Hon. James L. Jones, ex-United States Senator from Kentucky, is in favor of Greeley and Brown being nominated by the Baltimore Convention.

Mrs. Kate E. Womble, wife of Capt. John E. Womble, of Richmond, Va., died on Tuesday morning.

Work on the Clarksville (Va.) and Keyville railroad is being rapidly pushed to completion.

Things Political and Otherwise—Affairs in and Around Morrisboro.

MORRISBORO, N. C., May 29.

In the absence of much local news of interest you will allow us to say that we are highly gratified at the tone our State press and the spirit of work and union which seems to pervade the Conservative people of the State. We must and can carry the election in August, and the great question of the hour is how can it be done. Thorough and universal organization throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina will give us success, and to this end all our faculties must be directed. It is highly proper that the people should be addressed by our prominent men, to arouse their attention to the impending crisis, but the work to be done in townships and neighborhoods, will have the most telling effect upon the day of election. Get every white man to the polls and see to it that they vote for all our candidates. Send out into the by-ways and compel them by earnest reason and persuasion to come out and spend one day in work for dear old North Carolina. Let the cry be from this time until sunset of election day; Work! Work! Work!

"Everything for the cause—nothing for men." There ought to be a committee of active, influential men in every township who will see, in person, every man whose coming to the election is at all doubtful, to persuade them for the sake of all they hold dear to cast one more vote for the people's ticket. North Carolina expects every man to do his duty and be a craven who fails to do it.

We fear, too, that our county executive committees do not sufficiently appreciate the importance of the honorable position to which they have been assigned. Let each county committee be called together immediately to devise ways and means for carrying on the work, and let such an influence go out from those meetings as will not cease until North Carolina is surely redeemed.

We must support our candidates, no matter if we did prefer some one else for the position. A few votes kept back from them may lose us the State Executive or cause us to be in the minority in the Legislature. We would vote for our bitterest enemy if he represented our cause, for in so doing we would feel that we were voting against Radicalism—against John Reed whose senatorial career has been a disgrace to the State he has pretended to represent. Close up the ranks then—bring in the stragglers—advance the standard of constitutional liberty, and let our battle-cry be—victory! We must not be satisfied with a bare victory, but let us rout them "horse, foot and dragons," and give them a second Bull Run defeat. We can do it, and who dares say that we shall not? White men of men North Carolina, the result depends upon you, and we have faith in your political integrity.

Aspirants for the Radical nomination for the House of Representatives are as thick as hops, and the result is as yet in no little doubt. Quite a number are anxious to serve the county at Raleigh next winter, but if the Conservatives are not guilty of the most stupendous folly; none of them will have the opportunity. Our present Sheriff, Maj. Isaac Pipkin, will be a candidate again and so far, we have heard of no opposition to him. Those who attended the Edenton Convention, returned highly pleased with their trip and report a very harmonious time. Col. Carter will receive the hearty support of the Hertford Conservatives. Maj. Yeates' friends here greatly regret that he was not known in time at Edenton, that a general amnesty bill had passed, for in that case his nomination would have been almost a foregone conclusion; but that will not in the least lessen the zeal with which we will support Carter. We hope to have Col. C. with us during the campaign and hear him deal the Radicals some heavy blows. Greeley stock seems to be above par, and growing better every day; but while this is the case, there is an evident desire on the part of the people to see what the Baltimore Convention will do. We are glad to see with many a desire, to ignore for the present national politics and lend all our energies to the success of the State ticket. We are more interested just now in State politics, and we hope this impression will strongly prevail throughout the State. We make no apology for this political letter, but to those who complain we promise more local news in the future.

HERTFORD.

August Belmont, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, is credited with the following remark: "I hope that the Baltimore Convention will accept the Cincinnati nominations as the only means of defeating the present corrupt Administration."

W. W. Westwood has recovered $3,500 damages against the city of Richmond, Va., for injuries received by his wife by falling into a hole dug in the street to lay gas pipes.

The Democratic State Convention of Mississippi meets on the 26th of June. It is understood that it is opposed to the nomination of a third ticket at Baltimore.

The Anti-Masonic Convention, which met at Oberlin, Ohio, on the 23rd of May, nominated Charles Francis Adams for President and General Charles H. Howard, of Illinois, for Vice President.

Mr. Platt has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives of the United States, authorizing the appropriation of $150,000 for the improvement of the Dismal Swamp canal.

There were seventeen deaths in Richmond, Va., for the week ending last Saturday.

The colored hands at the railroad tunnel at Richmond, Va., have struck for higher wages.

Miss Stevens, a beautiful blonde preacher, is creating a profound religious sensation in Georgia.

The New City Hall at Pittsburg, Pa. cost a little less than $500,000.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Democratic Meeting in Georgia—Important Resolutions.

Augusta, May 30.

A large meeting of the Democrats of Richmond county, unanimously adopted resolutions favoring an alliance with any party which will secure local self government—the subordination of the military to the civil authorities, the preservation unimpaired of habeas corpus, and checking of the centralizing tendencies of the Federal Government, that all other subjects of political contention are insignificant in comparison with these, and that no dictate of principle or honor forbids an alliance of the Democratic party with other assailants of the common enemy, or requires the Democratic party to prefer certain defeat to partial victory.

This is the first important Democratic meeting in Georgia, and is regarded as an index of popular opinion in the State.

Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

SENATE.—Engaged in the consideration of the relations between labor and capital, with the prospects that this whole subject will be dropped.

House.—Butler renewed his amendment of the force bill. The speaker ruled the privileges of a report at any time by the Outrage Committee, lapsed. When any members moved a suspension of the rules, this almost certainly excludes all violent partizan legislation, this session.

The House adjourned upon Butler's motion.

The Meeting of the Labor Reform Convention.

Boston, May 30.

The meeting of the labor reform convention was large and enthusiastic. The New York delegation reported the eight hour strike in their city as almost a complete success, and urged a strike here. Working during the long days was crushing to the intelligence of the people, and they thought the workingmen should join the temperance societies, save money and fight the question.

Strike in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 30.

The German tailor's union, composed of one hundred and thirty boss tailors, who employ eighteen hundred women and girls, and take work from large clothing houses, struck to-day for twenty-five per cent. increase of wages.

Twenty more bosses in Newport and Covington, Ky., employing four hundred girls, will strike to-morrow. It is reported that other bosses not in the union will join the strike.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

The Senate has finished the internal revenue bill.

The tax on whiskey remains at seventy cents per gallon, but on tobacco a uniform tax of twenty-four cents per pound was agreed on, being an increase of four cents over the House rates.

The exports of bonded warehouses for tobacco were abolished, but all tobacco now in bonds is to be allowed to remain for twelve months, though no new entries are allowed.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, May 30.

James Gordon Bennett is in a very dangerous condition. The sacrament for the dying was administered to him yesterday and his son and daughter, who are in Europe, telegraphed for.

D. N. Botossi, the Greek Consul at this port, published a card this morning stating that the report that seven Greek criminals had been shipped for this country is a monstrous fabrication.

Louisiana Republican Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, May 30.

The Pinchbeck Republican Convention nominated Warmouth for Governor and Pinchbeck for Lieutenant Governor. A resolution endorsing the administration of Warmouth and to meet again on the 19th of July at Baton Rouge passed. After adjournment Pinchbeck made a speech stating that he would support the nominees of the Philadelphia Convention at all hazards.

Next Meeting of the Assembly.

DETROIT, May 30.

The Assembly meets in Baltimore next year.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

New York Affairs.

NEW YORK, May 30.

The Committee on the Methodist book concern, report repeated frauds, chiefly, if not entirely, in the manufacturing department and bindery, but not of such magnitude as to endanger the financial strength of the concern.

The storm to-day made it necessary for a postponement of the review, by the Governor, of the National Guard.

Edward Wolff, a well known broker, was accidentally killed at Plainfield, N. J., this morning.

Bennett is reported as better, but not out of danger.

A Denial by Ex-President Davis.

MEMPHIS, May 30.

The statement telegraphed from Nashville that Jefferson Davis had written a letter to Wade Hampton, favoring the election of Greeley and saying the Democrats would act unwisely in making a nomination, is untrue. Davis states he has expressed no opinion in the matter.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, May 30.

No department of business was open to-day.

Heavy rains interfered with the decorations here and northward. No out rages reported and but little general interest manifested.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Judge Merrimon will address his fellow-citizens as follows:

Beaufort, Carteret county, on the 3rd June.

Goldsboro, on the 5th of June.

Clinton, Sampson county, 6th June.

Other appointments will be duly announced.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Keep it before the people, that Governor Caldwell signed the address of the Radical Legislature of 1868, which is a most infamous and incendiary document—indirectly advising the colored people of the State to steal, to burn and to murder!

Keep it before the people, that Governor Caldwell refused to obey the plain laws of the Legislature before they were judicially declared to be unconstitutional, and thus assumed judicial functions—which the Constitution prohibits him from doing!

Keep it before the people, that Governor Caldwell made appointments of Directors for the benevolent institutions of the State and for the Penitentiary, in direct and open violation of the law, and that this shameless usurpation and wicked partisan conduct seriously embarrassed those institutions—producing a spirit of insubordination and revolt at the Penitentiary, which culminated in the fatal shooting of one of the convicts and the serious wounding of others!

Keep it before the people, that Gov. Caldwell has failed to do his duty to protect the people of Robeson from the outrages of the Lowrey robbers; and while he has Federal troops sent to other counties where no disturbances are now alleged, he refuses to have them sent to Robeson where a handful of cut-throats bid defiance to his authority and laugh his Accidency to shame!

Keep it before the people, that Gov. Caldwell is the enemy of civil law and the friend of military tyranny, that he openly advocates the Ku Klux Act of Congress, and says that Habeas Corpus ought to be suspended in the South!

Keep it before the people, that the Convention which nominated Governor Caldwell endorsed the past course of Gov. Holden—especially his Administration in 1869-70, when the reign of terror was inaugurated by the State Government; when cut-throats from Tennessee arrested some of the best citizens of the State—such men as Josiah Turner, John Kerr and others equally as respectable, against whom not a shadow of evidence was ever produced!

Keep it before the people, that Governor Caldwell, in the present canvass, is making most violent and inflammatory appeals to the negroes—telling them there is danger of their again being reduced to slavery if the Democrats should get into power, and making demagogical and partisan harangues to arouse the prejudices of the ignorant and deluded colored men against the white race!

Keep it before the people, that Governor Caldwell's whole course as Governor of the State has been one of usurpation, lawlessness and petty despotism—a disgrace to the character of North Carolina—and deserves universal scorn, condemnation and contempt!

MAJOR J. W. GRAHAM.

The Raleigh News thinks that Major John W. Graham ought to have attended the Prospect Hill Convention and made a speech. The News is informed that he did not do so, and made a good speech too, though short, on account of the lateness of the day and the rain.—Hillsboro Recorder.

We were surprised to find the above in the last Hillsboro Recorder. Our contemporary is mistaken. The News has made no allusion to Maj. Graham in reference to the Prospect Hill Convention or any other meeting.

We stated several weeks ago that Judge Shipp and Maj. Graham and others of our candidates on the State ticket would soon take the field, and aid Messrs. Merrimon and Hughes in addressing the people on the issues involved in the present campaign. We made the statement on the authority of Judge Shipp himself, who told us that Major Graham and himself were anxious to make some appointments and desired to consult Judge Merrimon on the subject. Judge Shipp is now in the West, and we presume he will take the stump in a few days. We have heard of no appointments by him. Col. Hargrove, the Radical candidate for Attorney General, is actively canvassing with Gov. Caldwell.

We quoted an extract in our issue of Tuesday, from an editorial from the Roanoke News, calling upon our candidates to take the field. In reply to this, we stated that Judge Shipp would take the field in a short time, and would do his part in assisting Merrimon and Hughes to arouse the people. We also stated that "Major Graham and other candidates should also lend a helping hand."

Since the above article appeared, we have learned that Maj. Graham is lending a helping hand. He spoke at Durham on the 11th, and at Prospect Hill, Caswell county, on the 25th inst., and will speak at other points as soon as the appointments can be arranged. We feel assured that Maj. G. will do his whole duty in the campaign. At the time we wrote the comments on the Roanoke News' editorial, we had heard of no speeches nor appointments being made by any of our candidates except Judge Merrimon and Major Hughes. As we had the authority of Judge Shipp himself for stating that he would take the stump, we felt authorized to speak for him.

Our party shall expect all the candidates to work vigorously, and strike blows whenever and wherever they can make them tell.

CIVIL LIBERTY OUR CAUSE.

At Windsor, when Judge Merrimon spoke there on Tuesday last, a flag was suspended across the street in front of the Court-house, bearing the inscription:

"HON. A. S. MERRIMON OUR GOVERNOR—CIVIL LIBERTY OUR CAUSE."

One of the paramount issues of the campaign is civil liberty against military usurpation.

Our candidate for Governor is the advocate of the rights of the civil law—is opposed to the suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus—is a bold and eloquent champion of Constitutional liberty. On the other hand, Gov. Caldwell publicly proclaims in his speeches that he favors the Enforcement Act of Congress which empowers Grant to suspend the writ of Habeas Corpus at his pleasure.

Such usurpation was never heard of before in time of peace in any Republican Government.

Civil Liberty is our cause. Ours is the cause of the Constitution against centralization—of freedom against despotism, and military law and anarchy.

If we fail in August, the sword and the bayonet will be the law which Caldwell would endeavor to enforce.

MRS PATTERSON, OF MISSISSIPPI.

We learn that this young lady, the daughter of an Ex-Congressman from Mississippi, is in Hillsboro, and will probably visit Raleigh next week.

Miss Patterson, whose father is dead, is giving public readings and recitations from standard authors, for the purpose of raising funds to support and educate her younger brothers and sisters. Her family, who were wealthy before the war, have like most others in the South, been reduced from affluence to dependence, and it is certainly noble and self-sacrificing on her part to assist those who look up to her for protection and guidance. A young lady of the very highest social position in her native State—with a mind highly trained and cultivated—with captivating manners, lovely features, musical voice, and brilliant talents, Miss Patterson has been warmly received and welcomed in the several Southern cities where she has given recitations. Her efforts have everywhere elicited the highest admiration and encomiums.

We had the pleasure of hearing her in Norfolk last February, where a select audience, consisting of the most intelligent and refined circles, greeted her with their presence and were enthusiastic in their praises of her exhibitions. While in Norfolk she was the guest of Hon. John Goode, where she received the calls of a large number of the ladies and gentlemen of that city, who were charmed with her manners and accomplishments.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

As the August elections of North Carolina are among the first to occur anywhere, too much importance cannot be attached to the result of our State contest, for its effect on the National elections may determine the great issue, so fraught with importance to the whole country.

That we can win the State elections by prudent management there is not a doubt, while it is equally certain that bad management will prove disastrous to our cause. And right here the national contest is identified with the State campaign, and we cannot ignore the one without damage to the other. Thus will the action of the Baltimore Convention materially affect the campaign in North Carolina, and every consideration of preservation and policy involves our delegates in that body to wisdom and prudence.

If we lose the election here at home, we lose all; and if the States of the South are longer continued under local Radical rule, they have no future without speedy aid and decided aid and interference from the National Administration.—Charlotte Dispatch.

We agree with the Dispatch that the result of the elections in this State in August will have an important bearing on the Presidential election. It is equally certain that we can win the fight if we will only use proper diligence and discretion.

The Radical party is in a large minority in this State, but it is thoroughly organized and drilled and will vote in solid phalanx. On the other hand, the Conservatives and Democrats exhibit an indifference and lukewarmness that is surprising and utterly inexplicable to us.

WE CANNOT AFFORD TO BE DEFEATED. A Radical victory will be fatal to the prosperity of North Carolina.

Where is the true son of North Carolina who is willing to see his prostrate State again handed over to Radicalism for deeper ruin and continued spoliation?

WRONG POLICY.

We have before alluded to the fact that some of our friends who reside in Counties containing overwhelming negro majorities, advocate the policy of not running any candidates for the Legislature and the various County offices. The reason assigned is that if the Radicals in such Counties be left to themselves, they are apt to fall out and wrangle over the spoils, and thereby dissension and disorganization will be produced in the Radical ranks.

We have taken occasion before, to protest against such a policy being pursued by our party, and we strenuously urge our friends in all the Counties to bring out their best and ablest men—no matter what may be the Radical majority against them.

A full county ticket insures a large vote, and a vote in Edgecombe is worth as much to Judge Merrimon and the other candidates on our State ticket, as a vote in Catawba or any other Democratic county.

We hope that our friends in every County in the State will see to it that good men are brought out, especially for the Legislature, so that we may have a full vote for Governor and other State officers.

The policy of making no nominations is suicidal, and should be abandoned.

JUDGE O. P. MEARES.

Gov. Caldwell, having refused an equal division of time with Judge Meares, at Whiteville, last Saturday, that gentleman waited until Col. Hargrove and Gov. Caldwell had finished their speeches, and then replied to them in an eloquent and effective manner.

A correspondent of the Wilmington Journal, giving an account of the discussion, pays Judge Meares some handsome compliments, and says the Radical speakers were triumphantly answered and their batteries turned upon them by Judge Meares.

That is the way to treat them. If Gov. Caldwell will not consent to an equal division of time at meetings which have been called to hear a joint discussion, as was the one in Whiteville, let our speakers follow the example of Judge Meares by answering him after he gets through.

ARMING THE NEGROES.

In the discussion at Whiteville, Judge Meares made Caldwell confess that he had consented to the arming of negroes in Wilmington in the last few weeks. Caldwell's excuse was that inasmuch as he had allowed Col. Bingham's pupils the use of the State arms, he was therefore justified in permitting his Adjutant General to furnish arms to a volunteer negro company, which has been organized in Wilmington, and, as the Journal says, "is drilling almost every night until midnight."

Judge Meares told Gov. Caldwell that the arming of negro volunteer military companies would cost him five thousand votes, and we believe that Judge Meares is right.

The Governor can find plenty of law for arming negro military companies, but he can find none to suppress the outrages of the Robeson outlaws.

SENATOR RANSOM.

From a private letter received in this city from Hon. Sion H. Rogers, we learn that Senator Ransom was very zealous and untiring in his efforts in behalf of the Amnesty Act which recently passed Congress, and Col. Rogers thinks the success of the bill is due in some measure to Gen. Ransom's unceasing exertions.

SWEARING IN OF COL. ROGERS.

When the Amnesty bill was passed, the political shackles of Hon. Sion H. Rogers fell from his limbs and he was a free man once more. We copy from the Globe the following extract:

MEMBER SPOKE IN.—The committee accordingly rose; and the Speaker having taken the chair, Mr. Scofield reported that the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, pursuant to the order of the House, had under consideration the state of the Union generally and particularly the bill (H. R. No. 2705) making appropriations for sundry civil expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1873, and for other purposes, and had come to no conclusion thereon.

Mr. Hoar.—Since the passage of the bill to remove political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth article of the Constitution, the signature to which has just been announced to us by message from the President, I believe there is no objection to the swearing in of Mr. Sion H. Rogers, a member of the House from North Carolina. I move that he be now sworn in. Thereby the representation of the entire Union in this House will be complete.

Mr. Randall.—Happy event! Mr. Cox.—After seven years. Mr. Stevenson.—Was not Mr. Rogers a member of Congress? Mr. Hoar.—I understand he was a member of the Thirty-Third Congress. The motion of Mr. Hoar was agreed to.

Mr. Sion H. Rogers appeared at the bar, and qualified by taking the oath prescribed by law.

WAIT FOR BALTIMORE!

Let our party stand firm as a rock. If we desire that our influence be felt at Baltimore, we should be united, harmonious and discreet.

Let there be no divisions among us. Let us stand together—and adhere to party organization.

Caution, prudence, judgment—not passion, prejudice nor impulse—should control us.

Wait for Baltimore! If the Democratic National Convention act wisely and with foresight, the liberties of the country may yet be preserved.

Let the Delegates from this State act in concert and in unity. Whatever may be the decision at Baltimore, let us preserve our organization intact. Of one party, no matter what may be its course of action, will then be a power in the land. "In union there is strength." Let us wait for Baltimore.

Jacksonville (Fla.) is moving ahead. The increase in the population since 1865, has been 714 per cent, or about 25 per cent, and the appreciation of real estate since 1865, has been over $200,000 per annum, or nearly 68 per cent. It has been estimated that over 50,000,000 feet of lumber are annually shipped, and it is very apparent that the lumber and spar business is largely increasing year by year.

The Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department has issued a circular to the superintendents of work on buildings instructing them that eight hours will be considered a day's work on all government buildings under the control of the office of the Supervising Architect after the 1st of June.

"Idlewild," the home of N. P. Willis, has been purchased for $50,000.

The Odd Fellows of Columbus, Ga., are proud of their hall.

Augusta, Ga., has received her ice machine.

General Edward Hopkins is suggested as a candidate for Governor of Florida.

FOR Democrats and Conservatives.

A Popular Paper for the Campaign.

JOHN SPELMAN, Editor.

RALEIGH, N. C.

On or about Wednesday the 23d inst., will be issued the first number of the People's Campaign Paper, bearing the above name. It will be issued weekly till the close of the August elections.

TERMS:

Single copies, $2.50.

Clubs of five and upwards, to one address, five copies for $1.00.

"Blasting-Powder" will heartily and vigorously support the nominees of the Greensboro Convention, and expose and denounce, unrelentingly, Radical lawlessness and abuses. It will be larger than, but much upon the plan of the "Little Acker," so successfully conducted by the undersigned during the memorable campaign of 1870.

A paper fearless in its course, and attainable by reason of its extremely low price, is much needed by the great mass of the people and cannot fail to aid in arousing them to the deplorable condition to which we are all reduced by Radical villainy and misrule. The subscriber calls upon the active, leading men of the State to aid him in reaching the popular mind by giving to this paper the widest circulation. A slight effort of this need will not be dwelt upon.

To achieve such a result surely is worthy a little effort. Shall it not be made? Send the money must in all cases accompany the orders.

A limited number of select advertisements will be inserted by urgent request, at $1.50 per inch for the first, and seventy-five cents for each subsequent insertion. The money must also accompany the advertisements. Address:

COLONEL G. G. LUKE, has been nominated as the Conservative candidate to represent Camden county in the House of Representatives. Colonel Luke was once before a member of the House of Commons, and served his constituents faithfully. He was also a gallant soldier in the Confederate army.

He will prove a most acceptable substitute for Chamberlain, who has deserted to the enemy.

HUMORS OF THE STATE CAMPAIGN.—The "Twinkling" Editor of the Wilmington Star is the author of the following, which we republish, as we know our readers will enjoy the joke: "Gov. Caldwell is now speaking to the East, but it don't rise for him worth a cent. On the contrary, it will make him hop in August. So, he may as well quit loitering around here and try the rolling country of the West where he was bred and born."

A CORRESPONDENT of the Petersburg Courier, writing from the town of Halifax, thus refers to two members of the bar of that county:

"Mr. Edward Conigland is the Nestor of the Halifax bar, and though from the prominent position he has occupied in the past history of the State, and from the eminence he has attained in his profession, he must now be nearly fifty years of age, yet his healthy and correspondingly youthful appearance would indicate him a man who had hardly attained the prime of life."

"Colonel Walter Clark is one of the rising young lawyers of the State, and conducted the part of the prosecution in a manner which showed that the interests of the Commonwealth could not have been trusted to abler hands. I hear that his name was prominently mentioned for the position of Attorney General of the State, and I suppose in a short time a proper and befitting recognition will be made by the State of his learning and ability."

SPECIAL NOTICE.—On the first day of June, the publication of the Daily Journal of Commerce will be suspended. I sincerely regret the necessity which requires this step. For more than 12 months it has been published by the undersigned under the most adverse circumstances. Whether the publication will be renewed, depends upon contingencies. The few subscriptions and advertisements that have been paid for in advance of that period, will be made good in such other edition of the paper as shall be continued. In the meantime, if a purchaser can be found who will buy the office and publish a Democratic-Conservative paper, the proprietor will sell. To the end that a sale may be effected, I invite correspondence on the part of any one who means business.

I respectfully ask my editorial friends in the State, to make such notice of the contemplated suspension, and desire for sale, as they may think proper.

Particulars of the Explosion of the Epsilon.

The tugboat Epsilon, while towing the packet ship Seminole, of the California line of packets, into the stream, suddenly exploded, at the foot of pier No. 19, East River, it is supposed, of low water in the boiler. Fortunately, she was about twenty rods from the pier, or else a greater disaster might have occurred. As it was, three out of the five persons on board were drowned, six people were so severely injured as to be at present lying in a critical condition in the Centre Street Hospital, while several others received slight wounds. The explosion was accompanied by a report like that of a heavy cannon, and the news flew around the city that a horrible accident had happened.

It appears that at about one o'clock yesterday afternoon, as the tolling stevedores had returned from dinner, loitering longshoremen were wistfully looking around for employment, and carmen making their way among the piles of boxes and bales strewn on the busy wharf, a terrific explosion startled the crowded dock, and a shower of wooden fragments poured down on heads unsuspecting danger. A scene of wild confusion ensued. Plunging horses, groaning men, and a multitude of people rushing frantically around, made a spectacle at once exciting and appalling. From every dock, pier, ship and warehouse in the vicinity a crowd came rushing to ascertain what had happened, and for a time the wildest rumors prevailed.

On all sides lay the exploded fragments and it is absolutely a miracle, considering the crowded state of the neighborhood, that so few accidents happened. Here were large pieces of timber that crushed into the dock as they fell, and there were the more slender portions of the cabin and upper deck work, lying in confused and shattered heaps, the splintering showing the violence of the shock and the sudden power that had torn them asunder. After the wondering crowd had recovered from the first sensation of astonishment, a rush was made to the end of pier No. 19, East River, just at the foot of Maiden lane, and there, in a sinking condition, was the steaming Epsilon, and three of the five men on board continued her way struggling in the water. Every exertion was made to rescue them, and in a few minutes they were brought on shore. As soon as they had recovered consciousness from the shock, one of them stated to the Herald representative that the Epsilon was in the act of tugging out the San Francisco packet steamer Seminole from the pier, and just as the hawser was adjusted and the engineer about to go to his post the explosion occurred. The Epsilon, together with the tugboat Andrew Fletcher, were about five rods from the pier when the affair happened. The ship Hamilton Fish, of the Black Ball line, was lying on the other side, and a sailor on board said that just as Capt. Edward Hallenbeck was in the act of pulling the bell in the pilot house the explosion occurred. He saw the pilot house, together with the captain, blown into the air a distance of twenty feet. The debris flew up on all sides, and hardly had the fragments settled before the Epsilon sank. Several boats put off from the pier for the purpose of picking up the bodies, but, with the exception of the three rescued men, no others were found.

The deck of the Hamilton Fish was covered with water and littered with falling fragments, and one piece, four feet long and three inches square, fell upon the forward part of the vessel. Captain Charles H. Mitchell, a Sandy Hook pilot, sixty-three years of age, while standing in the pilot office, at the corner of Maiden Lane and South street, a few rods from the head of the pier, was struck by a large piece of timber and had both legs fractured. Two seamen named Bernard Curry and Anderson Oluff, the former of whom was in the rigging and the latter on the deck of the Seminole, were struck by the falling timbers and severely injured. An old man named James Parsons, who resides at No. 22 Vanderbilt Avenue, Brooklyn, had both legs fractured while working on the dock.

Soon after the explosion an ambulance was summoned and the injured men removed to the Centre Street Hospital, where their wounds were examined and pronounced dangerous. The following is the official list:

Anderson Oluff, seaman on the Seminole, aged twenty-seven, born in Norway; has a lacerated wound in the right arm.

Jacob Bishop, seaman, aged twenty; compound fracture of the left arm.

Bernard Curry, engineer of the tugboat, aged thirty-two; fractured badly on the left knee joint; lives at No. 117, Crosby street.

Charles Mitchell, pilot, aged sixty-four, widower; compound fracture of the right leg.

This tug was an ordinary sized boat, of about forty tons, valued at $15,000, owned by George S. Townsend, at pier 53 East River, and commanded by Captain Edward Hallenbeck. She had five men on board at the time of the accident—namely, the cook, two deck hands and the captain and engineer. A watch, cap, boots and several other articles of clothing were blown ashore at the time of the explosion. At five o'clock yesterday afternoon, men were grappling in the wreck in hopes of floundering bodies; and, although two came to the surface, they disappeared too quickly to be taken out.

The Epsilon, though an old boat, was thoroughly repaired recently, but it was new wine in old bottles, and as the sound from the explosion was full and clear, it is supposed that the accident was caused by low water in the boiler. She now lies at a depth of about fifteen feet, and will be hoisted to-day.—N. Y. Herald.

Flight of an Ox.

A telegram from Newark, N. J., to the Philadelphia Evening Herald, says: On Friday afternoon Robarger, a drover, had a drove of cattle, among which was a massive ox. In Belmont avenue the latter became enraged at something and broke away. A young man named Ritzel was tossed twice and then gored by the beast. Down Springfield avenue it dashed, causing fear and consternation among the excited citizens.

Several attempts were made to stop the ox, but to no account. Turning into Walnut street the beast ran down a lady. Luckily, she was less hurt than frightened. Dr. Findley, a Presbyterian clergyman, was tossed, trampled on, and an arm and several ribs broken. Peter Bore, a flagman, was gored and his thigh torn open frightfully. Justice Mills tried to shoot the beast, but narrowly escaped being torn to pieces himself.

Several other persons were more or less seriously hurt. Finally the ox was shot and its throat cut by a plucky butcher named Myers. None of the injured persons will die. Crowds of persons gathered along the streets through which the wild beast coursed. At least 1,500 persons were in at the death.

It is located in the town of Warrenton, Warren county, N. C. The hotel contains some thirty rooms, and all necessary out-houses, and can accommodate from 20 to 30 guests comfortably. The hotel will continue open for the reception of the traveling public, and I invite all health seekers, in the summer, to call upon me. My terms will be moderate. MRS. M. M. R. BROWNLOW.

COBWEBS.

With feet that falter as I go,
The slower steps, and yet more slow,
Up the steep stairs I clamber;
Just as the day dies down the west,
And night is born a sombre guest,
I near the haunted chamber.

I stand before the silent door
Where love has cried "Come in!" before,
To lift the latch my hand advances;
I look: I almost hope to see
The face I loved to look out to me
With all its happy, old-time glances.

There on the door that once swung free
Each golden hour to welcome me,
Some grief or gladness bringing,
In dusty shreds that float and fall
Like sorrow's shroud and coffin pall
The cobwebs old are clinging.

I turn me once more down the stair;
I will not, cannot enter there;
The dusty, floating cobwebs chide me;
Their curtain drawn before the door
That checks my entrance as before,
The shadow, stillness, all deride me.

By blinded eyes my feet are staid,
My heart is once more unafraid,
My tears the shadow banish.
The cobwebs gathered on my heart,
By sorrow's rain are swept apart,
My foolish fears will vanish.

I open wide the long-shut door,
I step across the echoing floor,
And swinging back the shutter,
The mellow summer moon looks in,
As if my lonely heart to win
From thought I cannot utter.

"Dear heart," I murmur then with tears,
In all the hour my chosen altar;
Forevermore its door shall be
Left open wide to welcome me,
When up the stairs my feet shall falter.

USEFUL PROVERBS.—Always tell the truth; you will find it easier than lying. He who gives a trifle meanly is far meaner than the trifle. Men looking at the faults of woman shut their eyes. If we seize too hastily we may have to drop as hastily. Experience is a torch lighted in the ashes of our delusions. Better be upright with poverty than wicked with plenty. He who laughs at cruelty sets his heel on the neck of religion. Time never sits heavily upon us, but when it is badly employed. Whatever you dislike in another take care to correct in yourself. Resolve to perform what you ought, and perform what you resolve.

Stand up for your rights if you would be respected and mount to anything. Respect your rights as you would your opinions, your honor, and the rights of others.—Elm Orlou.

Tears are physicians that steal into the world and go about their silent practice untaught, unbidden, without a licence, and unpaid, yet healing maladies unknown to medicine.

Opinion is the main thing which does good or harm in the world. It is our false opinions of things which ruin us.

Nothing is more easy to do than mischief, nothing more difficult to bear without complaining.

Men generally put a greater value upon the favors they bestow than upon those they receive.

He who trades because he can without an injury to himself, is not a man.

Will is the root; knowledge the stem and leaves; and the feeding the flower.

Temper is so good a thing that we should never lose it.

There is only one love, but there are a hundred imitations.

Over-warm friendships, like hot coals, are quickly dropped.

GUANO GUANO! GUANO!

WALNUT HILL, N. C., Feb. 16, 1872.

Messrs. A. G. Lee & Co., Raleigh.

GENTLEMEN.—By your request, I herewith submit the result of an experiment on cotton, with different kinds of Guano, completed on your last season. I planted twenty rows, using on the first four nothing,

On the second four, 1 lb. of Peruvian,

On the third four, 1 lb. of Bat,

On the fourth four, 1 lb. of Peruvian and Peruvian mixed (1-3 Peruvian and 2-3 Phosphate) the best of land all being of the same quality. The Guanos were all accurately weighed when put in, the cotton carefully weighed and the cost of each kind of Guano correctly calculated; with interest at 8 per cent.

per annum added. Taking the first four rows (without Guano) as a basis, the following is the result:

Net profit on the 2nd four

(Phos.) on the money laid out, 70 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 3rd four (Bat)

on the money laid out,

10 1/2 per cent.

Net loss on the 4th four (Phos.)

on the money laid out,

20 1/2 per cent.

Net profit on the 5th four

(mixture) on the money laid out, 94 per cent.

The cotton was put at 6 1/2 cents per pound

in the seed.

Very respectfully yours,

A. T. MIAL.

We can furnish all the above kinds of Guano here at the following rates for cash:

Peruvian, $2.50 per ton

Patagonia, 2.75 " "

Wando Fertilizer, 2.50 " "

Phosphate of Lime, 50.00 per ton,

Southern Sea Island Guano, 60.00 per ton,

Zell's Ammoniated superphosphate, 50.00 per ton.

Maryland Cotton, 50.00 per ton.

Parties desiring it can get any of the above on time at a small advance on the above prices, by making arrangements with us.
